ASBO INTERNATIONAL WELCOMES SECURITY BENEFIT AS NEW STRATEGIC PARTNER

Reston, VA – January 28, 2014 – The Association of School Business Officials International (ASBO) is pleased to announce that Security Benefit Life Insurance Company is its newest strategic partner, effective January 6, 2014.

As an ASBO International strategic partner—the highest level of partnership available to industry partners—Security Benefit will continue to expand and strengthen its relationship with school business officials and the districts they serve. For more than 40 years, Security Benefit has been dedicated to the retirement success of educational employees by providing 403(b) and 457 retirement plans for school districts across the U.S.

“We are committed to providing educators with the retirement solutions necessary to navigate complex retirement decisions,” said Mark Turner, Security Benefit vice president. “Our strategic partnership with ASBO International will allow us to work hand-in-hand with school business officials to help educators learn how to plan for their retirement future.”

Security Benefit is in a prime position to sponsor the first general session speaker at ASBO International’s Annual Meeting & Expo. With this sponsorship, Security Benefit demonstrates its continued commitment to supporting school business officials and their professional development.

About Security Benefit
