ASBO International Welcomes New Board Members for 2018

Reston, VA – September 7, 2017 – The Association of School Business Officials International (ASBO) is pleased to announce the results of the ASBO International Board of Directors Election. The board helps guide the association in fulfilling its mission and advocates for their colleagues and the school business management profession. Congratulations to the following individuals, who will be joining the ASBO International Board of Directors effective January 1, 2018:

Vice President: Thomas Wohlleber, CSRM, Chief Financial Officer, Casa Grande Elementary School District No. 4, Casa Grande, AZ

Board Director: Marvin Dereef, SFO®, Deputy Chief Financial Officer, Fulton County Schools, Atlanta, GA

Board Director: Bill Sutter, SFO®, Chief Financial Officer, Boulder Valley School District, Boulder, CO

“These individuals truly demonstrate what it means to be school business leaders,” ASBO International Executive Director John Musso said. “Their commitment to fiscal credibility, weathered experience in the profession, devotion to their students and communities, and dedication to ASBO International make me proud to welcome them as ASBO’s newest board members. I commend them for their willingness to serve the association and its members.” The new board members will be sworn in at ASBO International’s 2017 Annual Meeting & Expo, September 22–25, in Denver, CO.
